

I wish to register my concern to limit the number of radio and television stations and to prevent a monopoly of ownership by just a few companies. The example in recent months of the danger of an overturned truck in North Dakota and the police could not reach a local radio station to broadcast the danger because the ownership was in Texas was frightening to me. We in the midwest are concerned about BIG companies taking over the stations with only "canned" programs.